

A thriving village rooted in history and focused on the future.

Visit our Website to Learn More >

Upcoming Events in Somers

Students picked for Voting stickers

Last year, Somers Elementary students were asked to submit proposal for “I Voted” stickers that will be given away at elections in 2026. Two designs were chosen from each grade for a total of 12 sticker designs to choose from after you vote.

LEARN MORE

Travel Center opens at entrance to the Village

The new travel center, owned by Somers-based Golden Oil, has opened at the north east corner of Highway E and Interstate 94. In addition to a fuel center and convenience store, the facility has a sit-down restaurant and new-to-the area Hawaiian coffee provider.

Public Works Vacuum Truck put in service

The Somers Public Works Department took delivery of a new Vac Truck. Staff are pictured cleaning out the sewer in the Country Charms subdivision ahead of a project that will include televising the lines to identify areas in need of repair.

Shoreland breaks ground on addition

Shoreland Lutheran School President Paul Scriver, left and Kenosha County Executive Samantha Kerkman look at documents stored inside the school's time capsule after the ground breaking ceremony for its new addition.

12th Street Water Main Extension

Development is driving the extension of utilities throughout the Village. A public hearing on the 12th Street extension will take place Feb. 24. More Information ...

Power Plant

The Oak Ridge Power Plant Project is being reviewed by the Wisconsin Public Service Commission. Two loactions are being considered. Public comments are being sought. More information ...

Referendum

Somers voters will decide whether to allow for the levy to be increased for additional firefighters in the April elections. More information ...

Village President reflects on 2025

President Stoner reflects on the past year and looks forward to new projects .

READ HERE

Garbage Carts Placement

Residents are reminded that garbage carts should be kept out of the right-of-way on collection day. It is especially important in the winter as it impedes snow-removal operations and could cause you can to be damaged by snow or a plow.

SIGN UP FOR NEWSLETTER HERE

